Jiwaji Club: Dharmendra Agrawal is getting widespread support for the Vice Secretary position

Published: 23 Nov 2026

Gwalior. In the elections of the prestigious Jiwaji Club, this time an ordinary person, social worker, and businessman Dharmendra Agrawal is also in the electoral fray. Dharmendra Agrawal, who has served as an executive committee member in Jiwaji Club, is trying his luck for the post of deputy secretary and is receiving widespread support from the members.

Dharmendra Agrawal is highly liked by the members at Jeevaji Club for his activeness. He actively participates in every club program and performs every responsibility very well. Dharmendra Agrawal wants to work towards making Jeevaji Club even better. He says that the current team has already done a lot of development in the club, but along with that, security, a hygienic kitchen, and food are also important. Now I will work better in this direction because hygienic food is necessary for everyone's health. Similarly, the number of toilets in Jeevaji Club should be increased, and the existing toilets should be clean so that the club members remain free from infections.

Dharmendra Agrawal said that he will also focus on increasing entertainment facilities at Jiwaji Club, and ensuring strict security arrangements for unauthorized entry by outsiders will remain his priority. Dharmendra Agrawal mentioned that he is receiving wide support and affection from the members of Jiwaji Club.
