creativity, and teamwork. 'Spice Queens' came in second, while 'The Test of Titans' took third place. All the teams prepared dishes using Surya’s home and kitchen appliances, giving them firsthand experience of these appliances’ efficiency and everyday use.

On the successful conclusion of this initiative, Surya Roshni Limited's Chairman Padma Shri Jai Prakash Agrawal said that at Surya, we believe our relationships are built on trust, shared experiences, and a deep sense of belonging. Surya Star Chef is an extension of this thinking. Its second season was special because it brought our channel partners and their families together on one platform. We want to develop it as a meaningful and regular platform. Channel partners Rajesh Kumar and Anuj Kumar from Bhind said that being part of Surya Star Chef has been a memorable experience for us and our families. This event gave us the chance to try out the company's home and kitchen appliances ourselves, as well as interact with the Surya team. The company considers its channel partners like family.
