Vinay Agrawal and Dr. Deepak Sharma appointed as Commission Friends in the Human Rights Commission

Published: 14 Nov 2026

Gwalior. The Madhya Pradesh Human Rights Commission has appointed Gwalior-based human rights activist, journalist, and social worker Vinay Agrawal and Dr. Deepak Sharma as Commission Friend Grievance Officers. This important appointment has been made by the MP Human Rights Commission in recognition of the active work Vinay Agrawal and Dr. Deepak Sharma are doing in the field of human rights.

Dr. Avadhesh Pratap Singh, Chairman of the Madhya Pradesh Human Rights Commission, congratulated both Dr. Deepak Sharma and Vinay Agrawal on this important responsibility and expressed hope that they will continue to work actively for human rights in the region. It is worth noting that this is Vinay Agrawal's first direct association with the commission, while Dr. Deepak Sharma is a senior Commission Friend and has also served as a Commission Friend in the previous team.
