Jiwaji Club: Raju Kukreja's path made easy as Yash Goyal decides not to run

Published: 25 Nov 2026

Gwalior. Things have become easier for former president and popular Jiwaji Club member Raju Kukreja at the Jiwaji Club. Strong presidential candidate and social worker Yash Goyal has announced that he is withdrawing his name. He has said that he will not contest the Jiwaji Club president election. With Yash Goyal stepping out of the race, the scales are now tipping in favour of Raju Kukreja. Now, a newcomer, Ajay Garg Babi, is stepping up to contest the president post against him. Raju Kukreja enjoys strong support from every Jiwaji Club member and is known for better work, improved management, and taking the club to new heights.

Yash Goyal's Original Letter

Dear friends, members of the Jeevaji Club, and fellow candidates,

After a lot of thought and self-reflection, I have decided to withdraw my candidacy for the position of President in the ongoing Jeevaji Club elections. This was not an easy decision. It has been made due to some personal reasons and, more importantly, at the heartfelt request of many of my close and dear ones.

I sincerely thank everyone who supported me, believed in me, and stood by me during the campaign. Your encouragement meant a lot to me. I remain fully committed to the growth and success of the Jeevaji Club. I wish all the remaining candidates the very best and hope that this election process brings the best leadership to our club. I will continue to support the club and whoever is elected in every possible way. Once again, thank you for the trust and affection you have shown me.

Sincerely,

Yash Kumar Goyal
